Overview

Trip Introduction

Annapurna Short View Trek 4 Days is another best trekking route for the clients who doesnt have enough time to do another trekking route. In the trekking trail you will start hiking either from Nayapul of Pokhara or Ulleri as the jeep goes up to Ulleri at the present. If you start hiking from Nayapul then you will walk by road side with the shade of small trees and along the small Modi river. There is a check point at Birethanti where you have to present your TIMS and ACAP Permit.

One you reach the Tikhedunga you will have to cross Modi river through a suspension bridge and it will take you more then 2 hrs to reach upto Ulleri . This trekking trail is one of the hardest part of the trek that you have to walk uphill.

Annapurna Short View Trek 4 Days The beautiful Gurung, Magar villages will make your trip more interesting and the local people with their own typical dress can make you more attraction.

Once you pass through the village there are trekking trails that you have to walk through jungle and the shade can make your walking in a good pace. During the Spring season if you trek in this region you will see all the jungle filled with the reddish color because of Rhododendron and the water fall. Everest

When you reach to Ghorepani if the weather is clear then you will see the panaroma view of Mt. Dhaulagiri ranges in the west side , Annapurna south towards your forehead, Nilgiri can be seen as well. Next morning you will have to wake up around 4;45 am and gear up to go to Poon Hill to see the sunrise which takes you max. 45min to 60 min.

other option on the same region like.

Day by day itinerary

Trip Itinerary

Day 01: Pokhara to Nayapul and trek to TikhedungaThe first day of the trip, we take about 1.5 hours' drive to Nayapul from Pokhara. If your journey starts from Kathmandu, you will have to take an early morning flight from Kathmandu to Pokhara. From Nayapul, the trekking starts. On the way lie different local villages, teahouses, rivers, suspension bridges, green hills, and 3200 steps staircase. You will enjoy the journey from the very first day. After 4 to 5 hours of walk, we reach Ulleri village and the night will be spent at a lodge.

Day 02: Trek from Tikhedunga to GhorepaniThis day, we pass through green forests and different rhododendron plants. Most of the time would be spent between the trees and plants giving some chances of viewing rare plants and animals. At some period of times, we view different snowcapped Mountains making the trek relaxing and beautiful. After about 5 hours of walk, we reach Ghorepani and rest there for the night.

Day 03: Trek from Ghorepani to Poon Hill to GhandrukThis is the main day of the journey as we go to the major destination. Early in the morning, we go to the Poon Hill viewpoint to view the sun rising through the Mountain making the Mountains magically golden giving an unbelievable view of landscapes. We take about an hour of walk from Ghorepani to Poon Hill viewpoint at the height of 3210m.The magical glances of Mount Annapurna, Mount Nilgiri, Mount Himchuli, Mount Lamjung, Mount Dhaulagiri, Mount Machhapuchre and many more. After spending some time with the views, we come back to Ghorepani. After having breakfast, we trek towards Ghandruk. The views of beautiful Mountain ranges can be got from Ghandruk as well. Ghandruk is one of the major villages for Gurung people and has a Gurung cultural museum. After around 6 hours of walking, we reach to Ghandruk and stay there overnight.

Day 04: Trek from Ghandruk to Nayapul and Drive Back to PokharaThe last day of the tour is no less exciting than other days. At the morning, we get a close view of the Mountains from Ghandruk. We move down through green forests with chances of viewing some rare birds and flowers and reach to Nayapul. We take a drive from Nayapul to Pokhara and the tour ends after safely dropping back to your hotel. If you want to go back to Kathmandu, you will have to take a flight from Pokhara airport.
